In accordance with the requirements of title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of South St. Paul will not discriminate against individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures: The City will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services and activities.

Anyone who requires an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or a modification of policies or procedures to participate in a program, service, or activity of the City of South St. Paul, should contact the office of Chris Hartzell, City Engineer as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.

The ADA does not require the City of South St. Paul to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services, or impose an undue financial or administrative burden.

What is an ADA Transition Plan?

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), enacted on July 26, 1990, is a civil rights law prohibiting discrimination against individuals on the basis of disability.

As a provider of public transportation services and programs, the City of South St. Paul must comply with this Act, and has developed a Transition Plan detailing how the City will ensure that all facilities are accessible to all individuals.
