A Woman Is No Man by Etaf Rum

Three generations of Palestinian–American women in contemporary Brooklyn are torn by individual desire, educational ambitions, a devastating tragedy, and the strict mores of traditional Arab culture.

The Minnesota Stories of Sinclair Lewis by Sinclair Lewis

A collection of Lewis' acerbic tales set in Minnesota that reflect his favorite themes: local boosterism, the plight of strong women, native fascism, the grip of materialism.

The Chicken Sisters by K.J. Dell'Antonia

For a century, two rival chicken shacks have been vying to serve the best fried chicken and a feud between the two families has lasted as long. On the reality TV show Food Wars, the rivals and sisters hope to settle the feud. Yet when family secrets become public, the sisters must choose: will they fight with each other, or for their heritage?

Hour of the Witch by Chris Bohjalian

A young Puritan woman—faithful, resourceful, but afraid of the demons that dog her soul—plots her escape from a violent marriage.

The Daughters of Yalta by Catherine Grace Katz

Tensions during the Yalta Conference in February 1945 threatened to tear apart the wartime alliance among Franklin Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, and Joseph Stalin just as victory was close at hand. Katz uncovers the dramatic story of the three young women who were chosen by their fathers to travel with them to Yalta.

March by Geraldine Brooks

Brooks builds on her research into the actual journals of Louisa May Alcott's father to create the fictional Civil War experiences of Mr. March from Little Women.
